TEN CENTS PER WEEK

SUPT. SUGGESTS NEW PLAN FOR ENUMERATORS

Would Let Contract of Securing Names of School Children to One Man.

Wants to Know if School Board Wants Co. Pupils.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS TONIGHT.

Census enumerators will be elected tonight by the school board, which will meet in regular session, and work will begin this month securing the names of children of school age in the city. The problem of securing all the children in the city is a troublesome one for the trustees, as recollections of the difficulty had last year is fresh on the minds of the trustees. Every child in the city of school age, whether attending the public schools or not at all, is wanted by the trustees, as the state allows $3.60 for each child of school age in the state.

At the meeting tonight Superintendent J. A. Carnegie will present a plan, which has been used in Louisville and some other cities. The plan is to let the securing of the names of the children to one man, who may employ all the assistants that are needed. With one man to superintend the work it is believed that better results will result. The enumerators are allowed 2-1/2 cents for each child. Previously the city has been made into districts and a enumerator are allowed 2-1/2 cents but several years of experience has proved that this plan is unsatisfactory. When the enumerators are out for the first time good money can be made, but only a few enumerators have taken the time and trouble to make a second trip over the district and secure the names of children of families who were absent from home during the first visit.

Another question before the board tonight will be the possibility of securing the county high school pupils. Superintendent Carnegie will inquire of the board if the trustees really want the county graduates to attend the city high school.

Stole Bottle of Booze.

Tandy Reeves, colored, was arrested last night by Patrolmen Clark, Gilliam and Goureaux on a charge of petit larceny. Reeves, it is alleged, walked into R. H. Taylor's saloon 110 South Third street and because the bartender was busy serving drinks, Reeves confiscated a quart bottle of the best booze in the house and departed without going through the formality of seeing the barkeeper. When arrested Reeves had the bottle but the liquor had been put in a safe place.

FIRST SETTLEMENT OF BORNEMANN INSURANCE.

The Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, of Louisville, paid over $5,000 to Oscar Blank, administrator of the estate of the late William Bornemann, this morning. This is the first company to make a payment. Mr. Bornemann carried $69,500 life insurance, having policies in fourteen companies. The one in the Commonwealth was less than a year old. In addition to the life insurance, he had $15,000 accident insurance.

Mine Explosion

Pittston, Pa., March 2.—A terrible explosion occurred at the South Creek colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal company, at Port Griffith, this morning. Twelve men terribly burned have been removed while many others are probably fatally hurt. Thirty men were caught behind the place where the explosion occurred. None of the rescuers have yet been able to reach them and it is feared all are dead. The accident is one of the worst in the history of anthracite mining.

CRUISE OF FLEET STARTS TIDE OF IMMIGRATION

New York, March 2.—Incoming steamers are filled with steerage passengers. Posted observers declare that the tide of immigration checked fourteen months ago by business depression has again set in towards the United States. The cruise of the battleship fleet is said to have been responsible for this.

Tennessee Senators Remain Away and State Employees Are Getting Anxious About Their Salaries

State Wide Prohibition Bill Passes Arkansas House and It is Believed Will Become a Law

Nashville, Tenn., March 2.—The thirteen senators who failed to answer roll call Friday morning, thereby breaking a quorum, are still outside the state's borders and the legislative tangle continues.

Besides blocking legislation, the absent senators appear to have, in a measure, tied up the financial machinery of the state. All appropriations for expenses of government will expire on March 19, and after that date nothing can be paid until a new appropriation bill has been passed, except some appropriations provided for by special statute. The salary of the governor and those of the heads of the various departments are provided for. Such is also the case with respect to the salaries of judges, but all clerks in the various departments at the capitol are provided for in the general appropriation bill. This will have the effect of seriously crippling the various departments of the state and especially that of the department of justice. No payments can be made to the Old Soldiers' home, the various hospitals for the insane, the industrial school and other state institutions until an appropriation is made for them in a general bill.

State Wide in Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., March 2.—The state-wide prohibition passed the house this evening by a vote of 53 to 27. The passage of the bill was followed by a demonstration lasting several minutes. So great was the demonstration and general confusion which followed that the house abandoned an attempt to continue further business and adjourned.

The ministers now claim they have convinced the senate, and with senators keeping their pledges to them and a full attendance when the vote is taken on the Gann bill it will be passed with two votes to spare. The Gann bill will not reach the senate before next week.

Sunday Baseball Bill.

Indianapolis, March 2.—The new Sunday baseball bill is being pushed rapidly through the legislature. The author has eliminated the objections of Governor Marshall to the former one. It is believed the bill will become a law.

No Election.

Springfield, Ill., March 2.—Only five senators were present at the joint session of the legislature today when the thirty-eighth senatorial ballot was taken. Hopkins received 28, Stringer 28, Foss 5, Shurtlett 4, Mason 2, Sherman 1, McKinley 1.

Albritton Improving

Elmer Albritton, who was injured Friday night by an Illinois Central car, is resting easy today at Riverside hospital. His physicians believe that Albritton has a good chance to recover.

Weather—Partly cloudy tonight, Wednesday; slightly colder in north portion tonight. Highest temperature yesterday, 60; lowest today, 50. Rainfall yesterday, .40 inches.

AGREEMENT REACHED.
Washington, March 2.—The conference committee reported an agreement on the rivers and harbors bill this morning, after a session lasting all night.

AEROPLANE IS DAMAGED.

Wilbur Wright and Spanish Army Officer Have Narrow Escapes.
Pau, France, March 2.—Wilbur Wright and Colonel Vives, chief of the aerostatic corps of the Spanish army, narrowly escaped injury when the sadder of the Wright aeroplane struck the ground and disabled the machine. The accident occurred just as the machine was being launched for a flight, snapped and the cable used to guide the rudder wound around the propellers, which in turn were disabled. The machine, however, flew on for forty metres and then stopped, and neither of its occupants was hurt. Previously Mr. Wright had made two successful flights in the aeroplane with MM. Lambert and Tissandier as passengers.

Funeral of Mrs. Banfield.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Banfield, of Epperson, was buried yesterday afternoon at Calvert City in the family cemetery. Mrs. Banfield was 48 years old and died Sunday evening at her home after a three weeks' illness of uremia. She was a well known lady of the Epperson neighborhood. Mrs. Banfield is survived by her husband, Mr. Taylor Banfield, and family.

"DREAM CITY" CAPITAL.

Oklahoma Would Have Its Head City in Center of State.

Guthrie, Okla., March 2.—The senate passed to engrossment and final passage the Campbell-Russell bill for the location of the state capital at a "dream city" within 50 miles of the center of Oklahoma, around which the state institutions are to be grouped. To avoid a conflict with the enabling act and constitution, which provide that the election on the state capital, shall not be held until after 1913, the bill provides only for the location of a $100,000 state printing plant.

The bill provides for the naming of a commissioner of each judicial district, the commission to investigate proposed sites and submit three to the people for their choice at the primary next year in August. The sites shall be of not less than 16 nor more than 36 square miles.

Special Judge Appointed

Attorney Scott Morrison, of Owensboro, will preside as special judge in the McCracken county circuit court when the motion for the appointment of a receiver in the case of the Globe Bank and Trust company against James E. Wilhelm comes up. Circuit Judge William Reed will vacate the bench because he is a stockholder in the bank. Acting Governor Cox made the appointment.

Tobacco Sales

Sales at Bohmer's loose leaf warehouse this morning were 50,000 pounds offered and sold. The prices ranged from $4.20 to $9.20 a hundred pounds. Several new buyers were on the market and made the bidding strong and spirited. The new buyers were J. M. Vaughn, of the Vaughn Tobacco Company of Owensboro; R. E. O'Flynn of the O'Flynn Tobacco Company of Owensboro; and J. T. R. R. R. of the Robards Tobacco Company of Madisonville. There were no rejections this morning and good sales are promised for the rest of this week.

The Sick

Mr. Charles Friedrich, of 233 North Sixth street, is not expected to live through the night. Mr. Friedrich spent a very restless night last night and his condition has continued to grow worse since. The family have given up hope for Mr. Friedrich's recovery.

Mr. B. B. Linn, of Fifth and Madison streets, and head of the legal department of the Paducah and Memphis division of the N. C. & St. L. railroad, is in a very critical condition and there is not much hope for his recovery.

Mr. B. H. Scott, of 725 Madison street, remains in about the same condition from a stroke of apoplexy. Mr. Scott has been in an unconscious condition for over two weeks.

FISCAL COURT ORDERS BRIDGES CONSTRUCTED

Will Span Clark's River and Perkins Creek—Estimated Cost $24,000.

Cannot appropriate Money for Confederate Monument.

ELECT BACK TAX COLLECTOR

By a vote of 7 to 1 it was decided to erect a concrete bridge over Clark's river by the members of the fiscal court, which was in session today. Unanimously it was decided to erect the bridge over Perkins creek. The discussion of the need of the bridges was animated at times, and order was rapped for several times. Magistrate P. F. Gholson was the only member opposing the bridge over Clark's river. The present from bridge over the river is in bad shape and has been condemned as unsafe. Some of the members wanted to repair the bridge by putting in a new floor, but after a discussion all votes but one were won over for a new bridge.

Preparations will begin for the work, and Bert Johnson, county road supervisor, was instructed to begin work of securing profiles and estimates for the two bridges. Roughly it is estimated the cost will be $24,000 for both bridges.

R. F. Sears, who has been back tax collector for the county, handed in his resignation and also the statement of the money he had collected. County Judge R. T. Lightfoot was instructed to make a settlement. R. B. Penn was elected back tax collector by the fiscal court. Mr. Penn will begin his duties at once and will go after the delinquent tax payers. His commission will be 33 1-3 per cent.

The question of donating $500 for a Confederate monument for Lang park was discussed by the magistrates, and action was deferred until this afternoon. However it is certain that the donation will not be made, as the law was cited in the case, which prohibited the county from making donations. The members of the court were favorable towards making the donation, but could not go against the law.

In an account from County Jailor James W. Eaker the court referred a bill for clothing for the prisoners in the county jail. The members looked up the law and no grounds were found why the county should provide clothing for prisoners who are in jail.

Present at the meeting were: County Judge R. T. Lightfoot, Magistrates J. J. Bleich, George Broadfoot, C. W. Emery, Saunders Brooks, F. E. Gholson, J. H. Burnett, J. R. Thompson, C. I. Knott.

Numerous accounts for the months of January and February were allowed and the court adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Landmark Gone.
An old elm tree, which has been a landmark at the city hall, is no more, for workmen have chopped the tree down. The tree has been considered dangerous for some time, owing to the branches of the large limbs. As the tree is adjoining the sidewalk, the workmen began at the top and took each limb off. Many telephone wires ran between the branches of the tree and the wires were cut and several of the telephones of the city officials were out of commission today.

BRICK HURLED AT PATROLMAN MISSES ITS MARK

Patrolman Emile Goureaux had a narrow escape from serious injury this morning about 3 o'clock when an unknown man hurled a brick at him, missing his head by only a few inches. At the time he was in the railroad yards near Sixth and Campbell streets, and the number of box cars prevented him from seeing his assailant. Immediately after the attempt to assault him, Patrolman Goureaux jerked out his pistol and began firing.

Two men ran rapidly out of the yards and the patrolman gave chase. One ran out from under his hat and it was confiscated by the police. This gave the first clue to the men's identity. Frank Hays, a barber, was seen wearing a similar hat in the early part of the night, and later he was arrested on a charge of being drunk.

Defense May Rest Case Today--- Many Surprises Promised When State Begins Rebuttal Testimony

Morning Session Devoted to Hearing of Unimportant Testimony in Cooper Trial at Nashville.

Nashville, March 2.—Just before the opening of the Cooper trial Attorney Anderson, for the defense, declared that the defense would probably rest today. Adjutant General Tully Brown, Attorney Bradford and Mrs. Burch are the only witnesses yet to be called. An adjournment will probably be taken until tomorrow after these witnesses have been heard. McCann promises a number of surprises when the rebuttal testimony begins.

The morning session was devoted to unimportant witnesses, Dr. Thompson giving evidence as to Carmack's movements just prior to the shooting.

W. L. Setters demonstrated the spreading ability of the kind of cartridge Robin Cooper used to show the allegation that they were steel tipped was untrue.

W. S. Morgan testified that he met Mrs. Eastman shortly after the tragedy and was unable to get a statement from her about it. This is expected to show that her testimony regarding what took place is unreliable, as she was too excited to remember.

Tully Brown testified that in Bradford's office Cooper agreed not to send the letter to Carmack, and left when a message came calling Cooper to Patterson's office. Said he and Bradford was sitting chatting when the telephone rang. Bradford answered it. "Robin Cooper wounded?" Carmack probably killed?" Bradford exclaimed. Bradford verified his story. Dr. Eve said the bullet in Robin's shoulder might have worked itself out. He said any of Carmack's wounds would cause instantaneous death.

Monday Afternoon.
Nashville, Tenn., March 2.—The only other sensational witness Monday was S. J. Blinning, who claimed to have seen Carmack fidgeting with his revolver and testing the cylinder a few moments before the shooting began.

He was badly confused on cross-examination, however, and contradicted himself on many important points.

Blinning, when asked by the prosecution whether it was a bright or dark pistol he saw Carmack draw from his pocket, instantly replied, "a shiny nickel pistol."

This was a decided sensation, for the revolver said to be Carmack's is blue steel, while the one taken from Colonel Cooper was nickel-plated.

The state has always contended that the blue steel gun found near the dead senator's body was Cooper's. On the other hand, the man who loaned Carmack his revolver, Major Vertes, had sworn that the weapon was blue steel.

Blinning said he was a stranger in Nashville, coming from Danville, Ill., and had no interest in the case.

Other Witnesses Called.
William Kinney, a traveling salesman, who had a room in the Polk apartment house, overlooking the scene of the killing, heard the shots. Two came together and were loud, he said. Then there was an interval and three shots came very rapidly.

Charles P. Hayden was then called. He went to Attorney James Bradford's office the afternoon of the tragedy, about 3 o'clock. He had to wait half an hour in Miss Lee's office. He saw Mr. Bradford and General Tully Brown leave the office. He said he noted nothing unusual about either Bradford or General Brown.

R. H. Wright, a mine promoter and owner, identified the automatic gun that Robin Cooper used to slay Carmack. He said he carried it when at the mines, and loaned it to Robin's uncle, Robin Jones, who borrowed it for the boy. He said he had fired it several times. He was cross-examined as to where he got it and when and if he identified it by number or merely by general appearance. He said by general appearance only. The state still contends that this gun is the property of ex-Sheriff John D. Sharp.

Difference in Sound.
Dr. L. L. Carpenter testified that on Saturday he took two revolvers—the automatic and one similar to the one Carmack is said to have used—and experimented as to the loudness of the report they made when discharged. "At fifty feet the difference in the sound was apparent, but not marked. The larger revolver made more noise, while the automatic was not so loud, but more of a sharp crack."

"At 100 feet, the detection of the difference in the sound was easier. The further I go away from the re-

PLATT CLAIMS CREDIT.
New York, March 2.—In his first installment of his reminiscences, which will appear in the Cosmopolitan Magazine, Senator Platt takes credit for Roosevelt's successful career. He declares Roosevelt wanted to withdraw from New York gubernatorial race when friends of Black set up the claim that he wasn't a resident of the state. Platt says he made Roosevelt stay in the race and got an opinion from Joseph Choate that Roosevelt was a resident of the state.

volver, the easier it was to distinguish between the report up to 128 feet, which was as far as I stood."

Cross-examined, he said he did not know whether smokeless powder would sound louder than black powder. He also said he was not an expert on firearms.

Henry Chadwell, steward of the county asylum, corroborated Dr. Carpenter's testimony.

I. T. Rhea, a grain dealer, testified that Attorney James Bradford was acrimonious to answer the telephone himself. Miss Leo had testified that Bradford never did this until the afternoon of the tragedy, thus implying that a telephone message was expected.

The record sustained the defense and the court permitted the question. Rhea said he had known Bradford for years and knew that he often answered the telephone himself. Cross-examined, Rhea could not say how often he visited Bradford's office, or how often he heard Bradford answer the telephone.

Paul Davis, secretary of a land company, of which Bradford is president, and whose office are next to the latter's testified to the same effect.

No Questions Asked.

"Did not Miss Lee ask you if something unusual was not going on?" inquired Attorney Garner, "and did you not reply, 'Col. Cooper is going to kill somebody if they don't look out?'"

"No, sir."
"Nor words to that effect?"
"No, sir; not that I can recall."
"But she may have said something like that?"

"I do not remember that she did."
"Did you not tell Miss Lee, when getting on the jury, that you would swear to a lie to get out?"

Democratic Club Meeting.

The Democratic Club will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock to perfect its organization. The committee appointed to arrange the constitution and by-laws will report and it is expected to complete the business organization.

Freight Cars Derailed.
Ten freight cars were derailed this morning at Little Cypress, and the wrecker with the crew was sent to the scene of the accident. The cars left the rails on a siding and the traffic with the regular trains was not interfered with.

CORONERS' JURY SAYS SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENT

The coroner's jury this morning decided that the death of Carmack, who was shot and killed Saturday night by Patterson, colored, was accidental. From the evidence it was ascertained that the lady had been playing soldiers and it is thought Patterson raised the gun to frighten Carmack.

The police have failed to find a trace of Patterson, and the members of the boy's family say they are unable to account for his disappearance. Both the father of Carmack and the father of the Patterson lad were to see Chief Collins today and they stated they fear the boy has drowned himself in the back water. However, another report is that the negro was seen going through Murray.

No Basis For Writ

The writ of habeas corpus for the release of J. S. Futrell and J. D. Petty was not tried yesterday afternoon before Circuit Judge William Reed. Both were held over in police court yesterday morning for complicity in the murder of H. B. Osburn, but the attorneys for the defense learned that there was no basis for the writ.

HEARING THE STANDARD CASES AT CHICAGO

Judge Anderson Limits the Number of Offenses to Thirty-Six

District Att'y Says Rebate Received on Every Shipment

TESTIMONY MAY BEGIN TODAY

Chicago, March 2.—The taking of testimony is expected to begin in the Standard case today. The opening statements are not expected to consume more than two hours. H. S. Holland, rate clerk of the Chicago & Alton, will be the first witness for the government.

Judge Anderson sustained a motion today limiting the number of offenses for which the Standard may be convicted to 36. He overruled a motion to compel the government to specify which of the 1,462 counts it would endeavor to prove.

Assistant District Attorney Wilkerson made the opening statement for the government. He said the government would show that the rate supposed to be a state rate was really interstate. Said the government would show that the Standard received a rebate of twelve cents on every hundred weight shipment.

For Boiler Inspection.
Washington, March 2.—Senator Burkett, of Nebraska, introduced a bill providing for the inspection of locomotive boilers similar to that now required in the case of steamboat boilers.

Cannot Tax Trade-Marks.
Frankfort, Ky., March 2.—In deciding the case of the state fiscal court against the Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse company, the Appellate court held that a trade-mark is not property and cannot be taxed.

Gold Club Meets.
Members of the Gold Club held a meeting this morning and planned for the sport this summer. A grass cutter and roller will be purchased so that the grounds may be kept in good condition for the sport. Also the club members decided to limit the membership to fifty, and it is expected that applications will roll in for the next few days, as the present membership is not far from the number.

Mrs. Thomas Keegan Ill.
News of the serious illness of Mrs. Thomas Keegan, of Council Bluffs, Ark., was received in this city yesterday. Mrs. Keegan is the wife of the late Mr. Thomas Keegan, formerly of this city. Miss Mary Keegan, a sister-in-law of Mr. Thomas Keegan, left this morning for Council Bluffs. Mrs. Keegan is not expected to live. Mr. James Keegan and Mr. William Keegan, both of this city, are brothers of the late Mr. Thomas Keegan.

Relatives of Paducahans

Mrs. Grundy Terry and Attorney R. A. Burnett, both of Cadiz, filed this week. Mrs. Terry is an aunt of Attorney Burnett and an uncle of Mr. Muscoe Burnett, of 2005 Broadway. Mrs. Terry died Sunday night after a long illness caused by paralysis. The funeral and burial were held yesterday afternoon at Cadiz. Mrs. Terry is survived by her husband and two daughters.

Attorney R. A. Burnett is a well known attorney in that city and has been here frequently on law business. He was about 70 years old. Mr. Burnett died yesterday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and three sons. The funeral and burial were held this afternoon at Cadiz. Mr. Muscoe Burnett went to Cadiz yesterday morning.

MORE TROUBLE IS FEARED IN MINING REGIONS

New York, March 2.—Financial circles are troubled today over the situation in the anthracite coal fields. The "peace agreement" in effect since 1902, expires with the end of the month and it is feared the struggle between the miners and operators may be renewed. Leaders of both sides refuse to discuss the matter and though both say a strike is unlikely it is feared in financial circles that one may come.

THE COMMONWEALTH LIFE

The First to Pay Its Claim on the Life of Wm. Bornemann, Deceased

J. M. Quinn, Manager of Agencies,
Louisville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

I acknowledge receipt of your company's check in full payment of policy for $5,000.00, which Mr. Bornemann held in the Commonwealth Life. Although your policy was the youngest of any held by the deceased, YOUR COMPANY IS THE FIRST TO PAY. Under one of the clauses in your policy there was a question as to the company's liability, and we are very much gratified to know that you gave us the benefit of the doubt, and settled the claim in full with such promptness.

It is but justice to your company to say that the proofs under nearly all policies were made by me on the same day.

I have been a policy holder in your company for some time, and most heartily endorse it. You are at liberty to use this as you may see advisable.

March 2nd, 1909.

OSCAR C. HANK,

Administrator Wm. Bornemann Estate.

The perfect record of the Chess Checker & Whist club was unbroken
last night when the D. A. D team went down in defeat by a score of 19 to 11. It was a fast game and both teams tried hard to win the game. Every player exerted himself and some good plays were made
but the Checker boys were superior
in the art of tossing baskets.

The second game which was scheduled between the Knights of Columbus quintet and the High School, The K. C. team was shay a player and the game was not played. High School receiving a forfeit by the score of 2 to 0.

The team lined up: D. A. D—

FAT WOMAN'S TROUBLES.

If you try to get the fat off with the exercise, tell me, please, where's
one going to find the time? I haven't any faith in it, anyway, as a reducer.
It hurts the fat person's weakest spot—the heart. As for dieting, that is out of the question, altogether. Better be fat than have cancer of the stomach.

The safest and quickest way to reduce excess fat is also the cheapest and easiest. Go to the drugist and get 1/2 ounce Marmola, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extrat Cascara Aromatic, and 3 1/2 ounces Peppermint Water. They cost but a trifle. Take them home, shake them together in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. If you are not losing a half to a pound of fat a day inside of a month, your case will be one in a hundred. Try it—makes you feel better all over.

Lydon and Evans, umpires; Well,
timekeeper, and Puryear, scorekeeper.

Next Wednesday another doubleheader will be played. The Light & Power team will try and down the High School quintet, while the Knights of Columbus will be pitted against the Elks.

man, Lord Angus Trevor, to win the girl for himself. The manner in which the play is presented, as a picture of the brave, big-hearted men and women of the ranch, as contrasted with the product of advanced civilization, "Texas" is certainly replete with interest.

Joseph and William W. Jefferson
stand for all that is artistic, ideal,
clean and pure in modern dramatic production. Their popularity extends beyond the theater-going public into the large class who are never attracted to a play except when it represents the rare qualities enumerated above. Joseph and William W.
Jefferson appear here in Richard Brinsley Sheridan's classical comedy,
"The Rivals," Thursday night.

Apparently it would not be difficult to tell the whole story of "The Thief"
in a dozen lines—the play that we are to see at the Kentucky theater next Saturday afternoon and evening. Yet, from the brief material, Henri Bernstein, the distinguished playwright, has manifestly evolved a plot that holds attention tensely
throughout three acts and a plot
clearly devoid of artifice or trickery.
From the rise to the fall of the curtain the two principal characters,
husband and wife, are said to hold the stage uninteruptedly. The canvas of the play, according to one metropolitan critic, is broad and its coloring admirable and brilliantly truthful.

CRIME WAVE IS UNABATED

Alley Denizen Shoots Rival
Twice With Pistol.

Physicians at Riverside Hospital Say
the Wounds Are Serious But Not Fatal.

BELLIGERENTS ARE IN JAIL.

Jealousy was the cause of a battle between Muncie Walker, colored, and Minnie Taylor, colored, yesterday afternoon about 4:15 o'clock. The battle ground was the alley between Eight, Ninth, Boyd and Harris
streets, and when the smoke of battle had blown over the Walker woman was found shot through the left thigh, but the bullet did not strike
the bone, and the second shot struck her in the right breast. She is at the Riverside hospital, but her condition is not regarded as dangerous, and doctors say she will recover. The victor in the battle escaped, but was arrested two hours after the struggle
by Patrolmen Owen and Vick.

Both negro women had the same man for a sweetheart, and when he failed to meet Muncie Walker Sunday night there was anger in her heart, and this grew to jealousy
when she learned that he was at the home of Minnie Taylor, who lives in an alley between Seventh and Eighth streets. Early Monday the injured feelings of Muncie gave way and she quarreled with Minnie, Emma Taylor, the cousin of Minnie Taylor, is said to have taken a part in the fight,
and she has been arrested as an accomplice in the shooting. When the two negro women first met the Walker woman is said to have smashed a beer bottle across the forehead of the Taylor woman, and then they began hair pulling and scratching. Emma Taylor is accused of slipping a pistol to her cousin, and then two shots were fired.

IT IS MUCH LIKE THE GATES YEAR

Wheat Operations Similar to Those of 1905.

Last Week's Developments Show a Tightening, With Advantage on Hull Side.

THE SCARCITY NOT SO ACUTE

Chicago, March 2.—Important developments of the last week have been a little in favor of the owners of wheat. Strength abroad has helped the July status here, thus opening an avenue of retreat, if desired, or an opportunity to insure against serious losses in case the war on May shorts is to be carried to extremes. The importance of this feature cannot be overlooked in a consideration of the present status.

Nevertheless July wheat was still 1 1/4% under May at the close of business Saturday, and it was 1 1/2% under May at the close of February of 1905.

WHEN pure candy is not always delicious and delicious candy is not always pure, it pays you to buy from a confectioner whom you know. The very appearance of scrupulous neatness which prevails at Stutz's COLUMBIA and the immense amount of good candy sold there should be a guaranty of purity and toothsome sweetness sufficient for you. Don't you think so? Stutz's Candies are made in the most modern and sanitary kitchens in the South of the purest ingredients money can buy.

COLUMBIA

Developments against the owners of May wheat have been the inevitable ones, greatly stimulated receipts as the result of the high prices. Last week's arrivals at primary markets, despite the exorable condition of the roads in much of the wheat country, were 35 per cent larger for the five business days than they were for the full week last year.

Not until April of the Gates year did the receipts for a single week run higher than for the preceding year, so great was the general scarcity of that time. Then, as now, American markets were away above an export basis, active futures at Liverpool at the close of February, 1905, ranging from $1.00 1/2 to $1.02 1/2 against $1.18 1/2 to $1.20 1/2 now. May wheat in Chicago then was $1.13 1/2, while Saturday last it closed at $1.18. July was 98¢ and $1.07 1/2 on the respective dates.

Some Points of Difference.
In the Gates year the trade was coualing up the leavings from a crop of 552,000,000 bushels; this year it is handling the reserves from a crop officially counted 113,900,000 bushels larger. Farm reserves March 1, 1905, were the smallest on record, 111,000,000 bushels, or 20.1 per cent of the 1904 crop. In the Gates year the northwestern states raised 154,000,000 bushels; their last crop was 175,000,000 bushels. Nebraska then had a crop of 31,000,000 bushels. Kansas of 65,000,000 bushels, against 44,000,000 bushels and 79,000,000 bushels respectively. In other words these five states raised 250,000,000 bushels in 1904 and 298,000,000 in 1905.

The official visible supply at date corresponding to last report had 9,000,000 bushels less, the big milling centers had 4,000,000 less and the principal western points counting the southwestern terminals, Chi-

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wall and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch in their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. R. W. Walker Co. Special Agents.

ago and Milwaukee, had 2,000,000 bushels less than now. Another most important point of difference also, and one which will account largely for the present strength of July delivery, is that the winter wheat area seeded in 1904 for the crop of 1905 was over 1,500,000 acres larger than that reported last December and the acreage harvested was almost identical in 1905 with that reported seeded for 1909.

Still another great point of difference and one vastly appreciated by present owners of wheat, is that whereas the Gates deal was run by h'undering managers for a man absorbed at the time in even larger transactions, the present deal is run by a trade general whose ability in the corn and oats markets at least has been shown to be of the highest order, who has invested largely and deliberately in wheat, confident of its merits, who frequently in the last four years has asserted that the Gates deal need never have failed and who now has his present immense prestige staked on a successful outcome of the big May deal.

Will Patten Unload This Week?

There are many in the trade who believe that Patten will force the issue, if possible, and unload his May holding this week. They believe that the auction that has accumulated his present fortune will foresee the risks involved by the stimulation of large marketings of wheat by producers and the effect that this might have on public sentiment if this stimulation were followed by the figures on farm reserves that the government must logically give in its statement of March 1, to be issued Monday, March 8. If the percentage of the last crop should prove the lowest on record, 20.1 per cent, as in the Gates year, 1905. It would show about 133,000,000 bushels on hand—an aggregate large enough to explode the "domestic situation" theory except as that theory is backed up and strengthened by permanent increase in reserves held by producers, millers and investors of the Patten stamp. Farm reserves a year ago were officially estimated at 148,000,000 bushels, and the Patten experts placed them at 138,000,000 bushels.

Last week's gain in prices in Chicago were 2 1/2¢ for May, 4 1/4¢ for July, 2 1/2¢ for September and 3 1/4¢ for December. Trade in the latter month was comparatively limited. Liverpool gained 3 1/4¢ for Manitoba spot wheat and 4 1/4¢ for American red winter, the closing prices being equivalent to $1.27 1/2 and $1.23 1/2, respectively. Prices of futures ranged from 4 1/4¢ to 6¢ per bushel; higher at Liverpool for the week.

Corn Receipts Are Enormous.
Recent advances in corn prices attracted very large marketings despite the almost bottomless roads that pre-valled in a vastly preponderating portion of the corn belt. Enough sections had good roads to swell the receipts enormously. This far the big run has gone to relieve the long famine among shippers, who had been putting off the buyers with as small shipments as they could. In the event that the movement continues at its current level—and it should be larger with the better recent weather—the effect on cash values should be much more marked than recently.

Thus far cash and future prices have been well held because of the previous contracts which kept the arrivals from weighing on the market. The winter has been a mild one, feeding has not been extreme, and it seems reasonable to assume that farmers still have a big reserve back. The smallest percentage, as well as the smallest total, quantity on the farms in the last ten years was 29.1 per cent of the crop, or 443,457,000 bushels in 1902, while the largest both in percentage of crop

HAD STOMACH.

Many in Paducah Are Being Thoroughly Purified by Mi-o-na, the Guaranteed Cure for Indigestion.

People of Paducah who suffer from dyspepsia and other stomach troubles are getting tired of taking preparations containing pepsin, because pepsin simply digests the food artificially. Pepsin relieves, it never cures.

And remember, pepsin only digests animal food; it has no effect on starchy food, such as potatoes, rice, bread, etc.

Mi-o-na cleanses and purifies the stomach and bowels, and tones up and puts energy into the stomach walls, so that they properly mix the food with the natural digestive juices of the stomach.

Mi-o-na tablets quickly arouse the stomach from its inaction, and in a few days it is able to do its work easily and without exertion. There will be no more sour stomach, fermentation of food, dizziness, sick headache, belching of gas, or foul breath.

Mi-o-na only costs 50 cents a large box, and is guaranteed by Gilbert's drug store to cure dyspepsia, sea or car sickness, vomiting or pregnancy, and stomach sicknesses resulting from over-indulgence of the night before, or money back.

and total quantity was in 1907, when it was 44.3 per cent, or 1,298,000,000 bushels. The percentage and total March 1 last year was 37.1 per cent, or 962,429,000 bushels. Corn prices advanced 2¢ for February, 1¢ for May and July and 1/4¢ for September last week.

Moderate Gain in Oats.

Oats were less responsive to bullish influences last week than they were the week before. Receipts, as in corn, were enormous in response to the high prices bid to the country, and locally were more than 1,000,000 bushels in excess of the shipments. The statement of farm reserves to be given out next week will be received with considerable interest whether the government figures are counted up in accuracy to the fairly close tab kept in the trade or not. The lowest percentage of reserves in the last eight years was in 1902, with 30.6 per cent of a very short crop, 227,000,000 bushels in 1901. The largest percentage ever known March 1 was 39.8 per cent,

PETER SEITZ

FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN'S, DIES IN ST. LOUIS.

Leaves Four Sisters All Living in Paducah—Well Known German Citizen.

Word has been received in this city by relatives of Mr. Peter Seitz, who formerly lived in the St. John's neighborhood, of his death at St. Louis Saturday. Mr. Seitz was 62 years old and was a native of Germany. The cause of his death was heart trouble. He is survived by four sisters, all living near and in this city. His sisters are: Mrs. James McLaughlin, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Angeline Chergin and Mrs. Maggie Champy, and three brothers, Messrs. Andy Seitz, George Seitz and Tillman Seitz, all living in the St. John's neighborhood. The funeral of Mr. Peter Seitz was held Monday morning at St. Louis. Mrs. Charles Smith, of St. John's, Mr. and Mrs. James McLaughlin, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Albert, of this city, left Sunday for St. Louis to attend the funeral.

Ninety per cent of the neuralgic headaches are attributed to eye defects.

Daily Thought.

To follow only the light of your own desire is to find yourself in the darkness of self-disgrace.

It is gratifying to observe that the better class of colored people are planning to check violence and immorality on the part of their race. In the end the salvation of the colored race depends upon its own exertions. All development come from within. The white man can do little more than encourage the colored race in its efforts. Just in the measure that the effort is persistent and well-directed will good results follow. A mass-meeting has been called for tonight at Burk's chapel, and all colored citizens, who desire the welfare of themselves and their families and members of their race, should attend.

LEXINGTON'S LICENSE LAW.

Lexington, a city with nearly double the ad valorem revenue of Paducah, and the same municipal establishment to maintain, has adopted a license ordinance, which, with the exception of making the saloon and retail drug stores liquor license lower, lays practically the same burden on licensed vocations. Retail merchants with stock valued at more than $5,000 pay $25; rinks pay $100; professions $10; vehicles $6 to $25; laundries $50; pool and billiard rooms $25 a table; theaters $200; lumber yards $60; grocers $15; bucket shops $1,000, etc. There is more excuse for high license in Paducah than in Lexington, for Paducah's revenue from ad valorem taxes does not meet the demands of the city. It is some satisfaction to know that this is not the most "burdensome city in the state to live in." The tax rate at Owensboro is higher.

PRISON AND PROMIT.

It is claimed that the state prison at Frankfort is run at a profit, and that the final accounts will show revenue of $224,917.79, and disbursements $176,360.16. That is an odd way to estimate the value and profit of a penitentiary. What we want is, not an institution that will be self-supporting, for the ultimate logic of such an argument would be that the more criminals Kentucky can produce the better off she will be; but an institution that makes better men of the unfortunate and criminal classes. If that penitentiary makes men worse, turns out wild beasts to prey on society, though it made a million dollars a year, it would not be profitable.

THE COOPERS ON A MISSION OF PEACE.

It was only in imitation of the Atlantic fleet that the "Coopers" armed themselves with automatic guns and went forth on a mission of peace and good will toward Ed Carmack; and there was a semblance of Japanese humor in the jovial conduct of Mr. Carmack, who borrowed a weapon the day before the peace conference on the streets of Nashville. There can be no doubt as to the mood of the principals to the conference. We have the testimony of employees of the Nashville Tennessean that Carmack had no thought of danger, when he secured a gun, only the reporter who swore he gave Carmack a gun was mistaken. Carmack borrowed it from somebody else and the reporter didn't know anything about it. We have the testimony of John Sharp and Governor Patterson that the Coopers were merely seeking peace with their weapons. And Patterson and Sharp loved Carmack. It was no shallow pretence of harmony, no mere truce, the Coopers sought—it was lasting peace—the kind of peace that white men sought with the Indians.

Colonel Cooper was right in his conjecture that Nashville wasn't big enough to hold both him and Carmack. Carmack's keen sense of humor enabled him to see the point of the joke the day before it was perpetrated. That is what the efforts of the prosecution and the defense would lead up to; but we have facts before us. Carmack writes hitting editorials about Colonel Cooper. Cooper sends him word he must stop or take the consequences. Carmack and Cooper and Cooper's son arm themselves and meet on the streets of Nashville. Carmack and young Cooper fire and Carmack falls dead. Governor Patterson and John Sharp entered into no conspiracy with the Coopers to exterminate Carmack; but good friends will sometimes enter into a conspiracy with another to get him out of trouble.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN.

A new way of boosting the qualities of goods has been found by a clerk in a local dry goods store. The clerk has not been behind the counter long, and the multitude of rolls of bright colored goods was a novelty to him. Saturday a woman entered the store and the clerk was prompt to approach her and inquire what article she desired. "It was calico, and hark went the clerk to the counter. He pulled down all the rolls on the shelves, and apparently the woman was not pleased with the goods, while the clerk was just a trifle fretted at the approaching failure. Finally the woman said: "I like the goods, but but my, how narrow it is." The clerk was not to be undone, and quickly gathering his scattered wits he stammered: "Well, I know, but just feel how thick it is, or I mean—er—er, just look how long the goods is."

Kentucky Kernels.

Governor Willson has gone to Washington. Mrs. Nancy Ratcliffe, 105, dies at Danville. Representative Chris Mueller of Louisville dies. Eugene Hammit kills brother Charles at Glasgow. Sixty-seven millions invested in breweries and distilleries in Kentucky.

PROMINENT LAWYER DEAD.

Col. R. A. Burnett Dies at Cadiz—Mrs. Terry Dead.

Cadiz, Ky., March 2.—Death laid a heavy hand upon this town Sunday night, two of its oldest and most representative citizens being taken. These were Mrs. F. G. Terry and Col. R. A. Burnett.

Colonel Burnett died about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. He was 77 years of age and had been failing for some time. On a visit to Nashville recently he contracted pneumonia and this caused his death. He was a member of the Christian church and an able lawyer, whose reputation was known throughout the state. He had represented the county in the legislature and his district in the state senate.

Mrs. Terry died about 8:30 o'clock Sunday night. She had been an invalid from paralysis for several months. She was about 64 years of age and a lady who was generally beloved.

Addition to Office Building.

An addition to the office building on South Sixth street between Broadway and Kentucky avenue, will be erected this spring by Mr. I. D. Wilcox. The addition will be built on the south side of the present building with a hallway between the two structures. While the building will be small it will be of neat design and will be a credit to the business section of the city, which is rapidly spreading westward.

HOUSE WORKS IN CONFUSION

Which Gave Evidence of Congress Drawing to Close.

Transacted Regardless of Stormy Session—Senate Passes Sundry Civil Measure.

A BIG LOT OF BUSINESS.

Washington, March 2.—Transacting its business amid scenes of great confusion in the house Monday gave every evidence of the present congress is drawing to a close.

In his endeavor to maintain a semblance of order the speaker was constantly pounding with his gavel and admonishing the members to cease conversation.

After two hours of stormy debate the so-called Appalachian and White Mountain reserve forest bill, amended so as to apply its provision to all states, passed by a narrow majority of ten. Measures of this character had been before the house in one shape or another for many years, and today's action witnessed a partial consummation of the policy in connection with the consummation of forests unceasingly pressed by its advocates.

By the terms of the bill a national forest reservation commission is created for the purpose of acquiring by purchase or condemnation lands needed to promote or protect the navigability of the streams on whose watersheds they lie. The house bill is a substitute for that of the senate and the measure now will go to the conference.

The final conference on the army, naval and fortifications appropriation bill agreed to and the measures will now go to the president for his signature. In addition to this vast amount of miscellaneous business was disposed of.

Resolutions designed as a concession to the so-called insurgents, amending the rules so as to provide one day each week for the call of committees gave rise to immediate discussion and was adopted, 168 to 162.

After a short discussion the house almost unanimously insisted on its disagreement with the senate on the amendment to the legislative, executive and judicial appropriations bill raising the salary of the president, vice president, speaker and United States judges, and the bill for the third time went to conference.

The house recessed until tomorrow.

Washington, March 1.—The sundry civil bill, appropriating $139,000,000 and the military academy bill carrying $2,541,000, passed the senate today.

Senator Bailey in calling attention to communications from the heads of departments, in response to the senate resolutions calling for papers and information, stated that such replies received from the secretary of the treasury, commerce and labor and war and the navy had been sent "by direction of the president," which he declared was inferentially a denial of the right of congress to demand such information without the intervention of the president.

Presenting a resolution demanding that all such communications be returned to the heads of departments from whom they have been received Bailey attempted to secure its passage, which was opposed on the ground that an orderly way to dispose of a matter of such importance was by sending it to a committee. After the debate it was allowed to lie on the table until tomorrow.

BEWARE OF THE BRIGHTS DISEASE

Says Lane Back and Urinary Troubles Are Danger Signals.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney derangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good, first-class physician.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home as stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency (especially at night) painful urination and other urinary troubles, try the following simple home remedy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is no more effective remedy known to relieve all form of rheumatism because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter which if not eliminated remain in the blood, decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

AN INAUGURAL VISION.

I stood in the fading twilight, for the sweet spring day was dead, and the purple curtains of evening had closed round her funeral bed. The night's first glowing taper hung low in the western sky. The moon, a silver sickle, gleamed in a star-sown field on high. A burst of martial music came up from the crowded street. A cheer rolled up in quick reply to the drum's impatient beat. And nearer thro' the moonlight came the trend of marching feet.

I saw a banner float aloft—a flag of stripes and stars—Whose faded blue and stars eclipsed, gave proof of many wars.

The blood which heroes offered had dyed its stripes of red. Its white had graced the bride's feast when Right and Freedom wed. Its folds passed slowly onward and vanished from my sight. But thro' the misty twilight fast deepening into night I saw a spectral army pass, who fought for God and Right.

I heard the drums of Lexington 'neath smiling Northern skies, I saw the smoke of battle from a hundred altars rise, The cannon's deep-voiced chorus, joined the bugle's stirring call, And England's hopes lay buried 'neath Defeat's eternal pall. While thro' the gloom a new star rose, a harbinger of day, And Freedom's light shone o'er the hills for exiles far away.

Showing a path across the sea, to where the harbor lay. And then, it seemed, a cloud arose, dimming that star's bright flame. As o'er the sea, with fire and sword, again the Lion came; But the patriot's children, rallying round the flag their fathers bore, Drove his legions back forever from our land's imperiled shore. Peace spread her snowy pinions o'er homes where hearts had bled, The plowshare took the chorus up, which long the sword had led, The fields gleamed white with harvest, which once with blood ran red.

And as I watched the phantoms pass, again the sky grew dim, As mournful in the distance rose a woman's plaintive hymn. A figure draped in widow's robes and bound with slavery's chain, Walling for sons and daughters who would never see again, When from the frowning sky above the tempest's flaming hand Struck off her chains of bondage, drenched in blood a mourning land, And paid the wage of ages with sword and blood and brand.

But soon the tempest died away; war's discord sank to rest, The sob and heartbreak changed to peace in every troubled breast. The sky was bright with sunshine, the air was filled with song, And the burden of its music floated o'er my spirit long, "From where Pacific's waters kiss thy sunny western shore To where Atlantic's surges guard thy coast with thunder roar, Union, Right and Liberty shall keep thee, evermore."

NEW DEPARTURE IN INAUGURATION

Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Sherman Will Ride With Husbands.

Arrangement of Carriage From and to White House Changed to Conform.

VISITORS FILLING THE CAPITAL.

Washington, March 2.—For the first time in the history of the country the wives of the president and vice-president will, on March 4, participate in the inaugural parade. Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Sherman will join their respective husbands when they leave the capitol after the inauguration ceremonies and will proceed with them to the white house. This change in the program was decided upon by the committee on arrangements and the following is the official announcement made by the chairman, Senator Knox:

"After the inaugural ceremonies are finished President and Mrs. Taft escorted by the joint committee on arrangements will return to the white house in the carriage in which the president rode to the capitol, and the vice-president and Mrs. Sherman will follow them in the carriage used by the vice-president.

"This change is made, and Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Sherman have consented to it, in response to the urgent request of the committee to have them accompany their respective husbands from the time the official program is completed at the capitol."

The arrangement of the carriages from the white house to the capitol will be:

President, president-elect, Senator Knox and Senator Lodge.

Vice-president, Senator Bacon and Senator Burke.

Vice president-elect, president pro tempore, Representatives Young and Gaines, of Tennessee.

The arrangement of the carriages from the capitol to the white house will be:

Senator Knox and Senator Lodge, Senator Bacon and Representative Burke.

Representatives Young and Gaines, President and Mrs. Taft.

Vice President and Mrs. Sherman.

Hourly Influx of Visitors.

Washington, March 2.—The national capital is the Mecca toward which the inaugural hosts are making their pilgrimage. The advance guard of the throngs which quadrantly visit Washington to witness the induction into office of the new president began yesterday in earnest. Early yesterday the influx of those who are to participate in the celebration began and late last night the visitors had swelled the city's population by many thousands.

From every point of the compass, every train and steamboat entering Washington was burdened with humanity, several military, civic and other organizations being represented.

The city has put on holiday garb

APPLE WEEK.

Rather unusual, isn't it? But we have just received the largest single shipment of fine apples which has ever come to Paducah and a celebration of some sort is in order.

SPLENDID SHOW

At the Star This Week.
Those who saw the splendid performance yesterday at The Star, Paducah's popular vaudeville house, know that Mr. Farrell, the owner and manager, knew what he was about when he promised the public something extra special this week.
Every feature of the entertainment is bright, clean and fresh and fairly bristles with real comedy. Allen and Emma, in their comedy sketch, "The Misfortunes of the Gambler," are screamingly funny, without a trace of coarseness, while George J. Stanley, in his faithful portrayal of the "fish-bone" darkey, sings his good songs with telling effect. Chief Tondeloh too presents an act of striking novelty.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Ky., March 2.—Cattle.—The receipts were 1,677 head, not a big run, but entirely too many of one class of cattle on sale (steers from 900 to 1,100 pounds) and the demand was lighter than usual, not as many buyers on the yards as ordinary; the trade was generally rather slow and unsatisfactory. Choice heavy-weight hutchers cattle were not very plentiful, and sold better in proportion than any other class, a good many sales were right up to steady prices, the medium and inferior kinds of butcher cattle were slow and 10¢ to 15¢ lower, and the heavy cow trade was also dull and lower. The fat steer trade was exceptionally dull, there being an oversupply of 900 to 1,100 pound steers on sale, and 15¢ lower than last week. The feeder and stocker trade was quiet, prices just about steady, but not much activity in the trade. Hulls steady, canners and cutters slow to shade lower. Much cows unchanged. Heavy steer trade dull and 10¢ to 15¢ lower than a week ago. The pens were only fairly well cleared and the market closed slow. We quote: Shipping steers, $3.50@5.75; beef steers, $3.00@5.25; fat heifers and cows, $2.00@4.75; cutters, $2.00@3.00; canners, $1.00@2.00; bulls, $2.00@3.85; feeders, $2.00@4.75; stockers, $2.25@4.25; choice milk cows, $35@45; common to fair, $15@35.
Calves.—Receipts, 129; market firm and higher; bulk of the best, 7 1/2¢; not enough coming to supply the demand; medium, 5¢ to 7¢; common, 2 1/2¢ to 5¢.
Hogs.—Receipts, 4,084. The market ruled slow and lower from start to finish; choice corn-fed hogs, 160 pounds and up, selling at $6.50; 150 to 160 pounds, $6.15; pigs, $5.15@5.40; roughs, $5.55 down. The trade closed slow and weak; only a fair clearance made. Hogs from doubtful sections hard to sell even under guarantee with 1¢ per pound off on all soft or oily.

Sheep and Lambs.—Receipts, 39. The market ruled quiet and unchanged; best lambs around 6¢; some fancy higher; culls, 3¢ to 5¢. Fat sheep 4¢ down. No demand for common, trashy sheep and lambs.
St. Louis, March 2.—Cattle.—Receipts, 4,500, including 1,900 Texas; market steady; native beef steers, $3.50@7.00; stockers and feeders, $3.50@5.40; cows and heifers, $2.25@6.25; calves, $5.50@9.00; Texas and Indian steers, $3.50@6.40; cows and heifers, $2.75@5.00. Hogs.—Receipts, 10,500; market 1¢ to 1 1/2¢ lower; pigs and light $4.25@6.30; packers, $5.50@6.35; butchers and best heavy, $6.10@6.50. Sheep.—Receipts, 3,500; market shade lower; native muttons, $3.75@5.50; lambs, $5.00@7.75.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Clever Paducah Writer in New York Magazine.

"The Stage on Which Maude Adams First Appeared" is the taking title of an attractive feature story in the March number of "The Theater," written by Miss Ora V. Leigh, of Paducah.

It is an account of the unique old Salt Lake theater of Salt Lake City, and the data for the article was gathered by Miss Leigh when doing newspaper work out there. The facts are presented in a delightfully clever and interesting way, quite out of the usual cut and dried feature articles. Miss Leigh lets Mrs. Adams tell the story of her connection with the theater and her child's first appearance there, and makes her own description of the theater secondary to that. The photographs illustrating the story were, also, secured by the writer when in Salt Lake. The picture of the house where Maude Adams was born was taken by Miss Leigh. The picture of Maude Adams as a child was given to Miss Leigh by Mrs. Asenath Adams Kladden, the mother. The third illustration is of the Salt Lake theater, which has quite an interesting personal ally apart from its connection with America's favorite actress.

Miss Adams' first appearance on the Salt Lake stage was when a tiny baby. The play was "The Lost Child" and a baby was an important stage property of the first act. The one that finally played the part was sick. Maude had been brought down to see her mother, who was in the play, by the nurse, and was hurriedly substituted. She met the occasion "with a smile and a coo," and captured her audience entirely even at that tender age, prophetic of the future.

An interesting old program of "The Three Guardsmen," presented at the theater with Maude Adams' mother in the role of Anne of Austria is given. Latter-day history of this playhouse, which is unique as the only theater connected with a church, is also happily touched upon in Miss Leigh's versatile and graceful style. The theater is the best in Salt Lake City and Miss Leigh often attended performances there during her stay in that city. She knew personally Maude Adams' mother and grandmother, the latter 80 years old, and enjoyed their interesting reminiscences. The story's interest for Paducah, though, will be the popular writer more than the popular actress.

Children to Celebrate Feast of Purim.

Delphic Club Elects Officers for 1900-1901.

The Delphic club held its annual business meeting this morning at the Delphic rooms in the Carnegie library. The officers for the ensuing club year were elected as follows:

President—Mrs. Alonzo R. Meyers
Vice-president—Mrs. Edmund M. Post
Secretary—Miss Kathleen Whitefield

Treasurer—Mrs. George Flournoy.
Delphic Librarian—Mrs. Elizabeth Anstlin.
The present officers of the club have served the time-limit, two years, except Miss Whitefield the secretary, who was the only re-elected one. Those elected today will not go into office until the next club year, beginning the first Tuesday in October. The personnel is quite a strong one and the Delphic will continue the upward progress under their leadership. Mrs. Mildred Davis, the retiring president of the club, in a beautiful talk this morning, stressed the supreme distinction that she felt had been hers in having been president of the Delphic club during two such notable years of study and work.

In Australia.
Australia is a land of magnificent distance. Sydney on the eastern side and Perth on the western are 2,900 miles apart, and the high court of the commonwealth has to hold periodical sittings in both, as well as in the other state capitals. Some members of the commonwealth parliament have been grumbling at the item $16,250 for the traveling expenses of the judges. The attorney-general in reply stated that the judges were traveling for 150 days of the year and their journey had to be "attended by a certain amount of circumstance."

FORCED TO ROB BANK.

Cashier Tells Remarkable Story and Secures His Acquittal.
Nashville, Ala., March 2.—A remarkable story of being forced at the point of a revolver to sign a contract to take $4,000 from the bank of Mineral Springs and to leave America with the money has been told before the Howard county circuit court here by C. R. Austin, cashier of the bank of Mineral Springs, who was alleged to be a defaulter and who admitted to the court that he took the money, but who claimed that the act was carried out under such circumstances as to rob it of any criminal intent, and who was held to be not guilty of the charge here at a late hour last night by the jury in the case.

BURGLARS FRIGHTENED

FROM PALMER HOME.
Soft footsteps were heard early this morning in the residence of Mrs. Elbridge Palmer, 1041 Clark street, and upon an investigation by members of the family an unknown man was found in the house. The alarm was given immediately and the stranger left the home quickly by the route of a window that he had opened carefully and propped. Nothing of value has been missed from the household, and the family is unable to account for the visit of the man, whose identity could not be detected. Visitors had left the Palmer home shortly after 1 o'clock this morning for the early morning train and the members of the family had not returned to sleep when the footsteps were heard. It is believed that the burglar entered the home and was detected before he had an opportunity to secure valuables. The case was reported to the police department and the police are working on the case.

Read the Want Ads—the "For Sale" ads, the "Exchange Ads." You certainly have something you don't want that is worth real money to some one else. This person talks to you through The Sun.

Or you may see something advertised that you intend buying during the day—something you find you can buy for half what you feared you would have to pay.

There are other opportunities, too. Through these want ads you can find the cook you have been looking for—the seamstress, the clerk, the chore boy.

Read them carefully—now. Get in touch with the people who can serve you or whom you can serve. It will pay you well.

Subscribers inserting want ads in The Sun will kindly remember that all such items are to be paid for when the ad is inserted, the rule applying to everyone without exception.

S.S.S. THE REMEDY FOR SORES AND ULCERS

The combination of healthful vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed, makes it an especially desirable and effective remedy in the treatment of sores and ulcers of every kind. Since an impure condition of the blood is responsible for the trouble, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a successful cure; and it should be a medicine that not only cleanses the circulation, but one that at the same time restores the blood to its normal, rich, nutritive condition. S. S. S. is just such a remedy. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing vegetable properties, extracted from nature's roots, herbs and barks of the forest and fields. It has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity in the blood. When S. S. S. has purified the circulation, and strengthened and enriched it, sores and ulcers heal readily and surely, because they are no longer fed and kept open by a continual discharge into them of irritating disease-laden matter from the blood. S. S. S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh by supplying it with rich, nourishing blood and makes a permanent and lasting cure. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice mailed free to all who write.

TOBACCO NEWS

Dark Tobacco Market.
Hopkinsville, Ky., March 2.—Owing to the unprecedented activity of the loose tobacco market and the indications of increasing business, Hopkinsville now has three selling floors instead of the one with which the method of selling was resumed in the Black Patch several weeks ago. R. E. Cooper & Co. announce the reopening of their warehouse with daily auction sales of both loose and priced tobacco. H. H. Abernathy, the Society of Equity salesman, and J. P. Thompson & Co., who opened the first floor, are holding sales every day. The prices obtained appear to be very satisfactory to the buyers of the tobacco, as practically no rejections are reported.

The Planters Protective association had a busy week. A quarter of a million pounds of the new crop found a purchaser in the Imperial Tobacco company, while 165 hogheads of the 1907 crop were sold to various buyers. The Imperial will pay from $3 to $10 for the loosely packed tobacco they have accepted. The following sales for the district are reported by the Planters' association:

Place.	Sales for week.	Sales for year.
Princeton, Ky.	1,824	1,824
Russellville, Ky.	1,497	1,497
Clarksville, Tenn.	413	12,890
Mayfield, Ky.	32	4,263
Murray, Ky.	83	3,636
Paducah, Ky.	265	8,534
Hopkinsville, Ky.	155	6,493
Culhrie, Ky.	176	5,417
Cadiz, Ky.	27	1,427
Springfield, Tenn.	All sold	8,276

Totals 1,181 63,632
Now that the executive committee of the Planters' Protective association has sanctioned the sale of the big 2,000,000-pound pool of the Christian county farmers, provided their disputed grades are sold to stemmers so as not to conflict with the unsold 1907 crop, lively interest is being taken in their negotiations with the buyers. Their samples will be offered for examination, it is understood, Monday. Already the Imperial buyers have gone over the types and may be ready to submit bids immediately. The tobacco will be sold to the highest bidder, provided the price offered equals or exceeds the prices established by the graders of the association.

Louisville Report.
Louisville, March 2.—The 1908 crop of burley has been about all marketed and offerings of that crop dropped off sharply this week. And the quiet market feature of the wind-up on one of the shortest crops ever raised is the fact that prices have shown declines. Except for color grades the American Tobacco company was about the only bidder for burley this week and several grades of red were lower. Dark tobacco continues to meet with an indifferent demand and prices were not up to expectations of sellers. Private sales included 187 hogheads of new bur-

FREE HAND FOR ALL IN TAFT CABINET

Advisers of New President to Develop Own Work.

Walter Wellman Tells How Incoming Chief Will Copy Methods of McKinley.

OPINIONS OF ALL WANTED.

Walter Wellman in the Chicago Record-Herald says:

"To develop strong men about him is to be a distinctive policy of President-elect Taft. The new president feels that he has chosen a cabinet of unusual individual strength from whom work of a high order may be expected."

And he has sent word to the men who are to sit at his council table that he wants every one of them to be the actual head of his department, not afraid to take the initiative or assume responsibility and to develop individual policy and action as much as they like. What Mr. Taft means, though he doesn't say it in those words, is that he wants the members of the cabinet to be something more than mere clerks to the president. What Mr. Taft said, or his authorized representatives have said for him in extending invitations to various men to take places in the cabinet, is interesting and significant. "I do not intend to run the government by telephone, giving orders to heads of departments through the secretary," Mr. Taft has said. "I want every man to run his department in his own way, coming to me only with the larger and more difficult questions."

Mr. Taft has added, or his authorized spokesmen have added for him, that every member of the government is expected to speak his mind openly and freely in cabinet councils. It will not be necessary or polite for a cabinet officer to consider first whether or not his opinions are likely to agree with those of the man who sits at the head of the table. The Taft policy is to be one calculated to bring out the best that is in his advisers without too much domination through his own personality and prestige.

It is said upon excellent authority that there are men in the new cabinet who would not have accepted places if these assurances had been lacking, but who did accept upon the frank statement of this policy by the men who had been authorized by Mr. Taft to confer with them.

Every one in Washington who knows about this plan approves of it as the best possible thing for the success of the new administration and the remark is often heard that it is a method which exactly suits the Taft temperament. If Mr. Taft has been noted for anything during his somewhat extensive official experience, it is his thrills quality of full and free consultation with his subordinates or associates. He is a patient investigator of facts and equally tolerant of the opinions of others as to the significance of facts. He realizes the full that the great American government has grown too big and too complex for what we may call one-man rule over it. He appreciates, too, that men of first-rate ability, men who have made successes in their own special lines of activity, are loath to come to Washington and work for the government for less than it costs them to live here if they are not to have the opportunity to develop strength of their own and to enjoy the satisfaction of proceeding to a fair extent with a free hand.

Naturally efforts are being made by some of those who know of this building-up-men policy of Mr. Taft to construe it into a reflection upon President Roosevelt. But it is needless to say that criticism of President Roosevelt is farthest from Mr. Taft's thoughts. It has been necessary for Mr. Roosevelt to administer his office in his way. Temperament is everything with strong men and will in the end submerge all preconceived theories or plans in conflict with it. No one can say that Mr. Roosevelt's method, dictated by the Roosevelt temperament, has been a failure. It has been a success. But Mr. Taft must follow out his own temperament, and that is precisely what he is planning to do. And his friends do not doubt that it will prove fully as successful as the Roosevelt method has been, with perhaps more of satisfaction.

It's a Good Sound Common Sense Policy

To use medicines only of KNOWN COMPOSITION, and which contain neither alcohol nor habit-forming drugs. It is foolish—often dangerous to do otherwise. The most intelligent people, and many of the most successful, conscientious physicians, follow this judicious course of action. The leading medical authorities, of all schools of medicine, endorse the ingredients composing Dr. Pierce's medicines. These are plainly printed on wrappers and attested under oath. There's no secrecy; an open publicity, square-deal policy is followed by the makers.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, devised and gotten up by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in treating woman's peculiar diseases and carefully adapted to work in harmony with her delicate organization, by an experienced and skilled specialist in her maladies.

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, which contains neither alcohol (which to most women is the rankest poison) or other injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY for women, the composition of which is so perfect and good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient, in plain English on its outside bottle-wrapper, and attest the correctness of the same under oath.

We have a profound desire to avoid all offense to the most delicate sensitiveness of modest women, for whom we entertain the most sincere respect and admiration. We shall not, therefore, particularize here concerning the symptoms and peculiar ailments incident to the sex for which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has for more than 40 years proven such a boon. We cannot, however, do a better service to the afflicted of the gentler sex than to refer them to Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a great family doctor book of 1000 pages, bound in cloth and given away gratis, or sent, post-paid, on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps—to cover cost of mailing only. All the delicate ailments and matters about which every woman, whether young or old, single or married, should know, but which their sense of delicacy makes them hesitate to ask even the family physician about, are made plain in this great book. Write for it.

Empty hogheads furnished free to parties wishing to ship their tobacco by rail or river.

Tobacco is unloaded in large, flat baskets, each grade to itself, weighed and receipt given owner, showing number of draft and pounds thereof. A corresponding ticket is placed on each pile. The highest bid is written on ticket and, should owner accept same, by presenting at office receipt previously given, the cash is handed over.

Should the bid offered not be satisfactory, the tobacco can be offered the next day or at any other time thereafter.

It costs absolutely nothing to offer your tobacco unless bid is accepted, in which case we charge 15 cents per hundred pounds and 2 cents on the dollar.

The greatest demand among manufacturers and dealers is for loose tobacco and, since it will bring more money offered loose, why go to the expense of having prized, stored, insured, inspected and looked after?

You will get more money for your tobacco when offered to the highest bidder in open competition with twenty-five buyers trying to buy than when you expect or require one buyer to buy millions of pounds without competition at a round price.

SALES EVERY DAY

tion to the men working with and under the chief executive and with less friction and agitation.

The Taft policy is to take the government machine back to the McKinley days rather than to continue the Roosevelt regime. McKinley's method was distinctly that of building up men. He built up such men as Taft himself, Root, Hay, Cortelyou and others. McKinley was not a great talker, but a good listener. He encouraged men not only to manage their departments fully, but to express their opinions freely. McKinley rarely expressed an opinion of his own on important questions till he had drawn out the views of all his counselors, and not a little of the credit he gained for his wisdom had its origin in this quality of gaining the best possible light before formulating his own judgment.

President Roosevelt has given us an example of the other method, the one-man rule. He could not have done otherwise had he tried. The leopard cannot change his spots, and in this case an effort to do so would have resulted in failure. Mr. Roosevelt's strong personality has dominated the whole government and everyone in it, the undoubted success of his administration in his success pure and simple. Almost nothing outside the bare routine has been done by any cabinet officer without previous consultation with the president. It is true that through his great familiarity with all the affairs of government and his abundant administrative energy, Mr. Roosevelt has many times had Mr. Loeb telephone orders about this and that to members of the cabinet. That suited the Roosevelt temperament, but Taft has already served notice that it will not suit him.

CHANGE

IN MANNER OF MAKING BIDS ON HOPKINSVILLE POOL.

New Method, It Is Believed, Will Have a Stronger Appeal to the Buyers.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 2.—A decided change has been made in the manner in which bids are to be made on the 1,300,000 pounds of tobacco in the pools. According to the first plan the three pools were to be made up by the farmers themselves and the buyers were to make their bids accordingly. Some bids were made in this manner but the buyers claimed that they could probably make better prices if allowed to select the tobacco most suitable to their trade. So they were authorized to make bids today for one lot of 600,000 pounds.

Each buyer goes into the room where the samples are displayed, goes over them and selects those crops which appeal to him most directly, until he gets as much as the 600,000 together. He then makes his bid on each crop separately. This afternoon these bids are being considered by the committee and the one which appears to be the best will be accepted, provided it comes up to the graded price which has been put upon the tobacco.

If this first pool is sold under these conditions then the buyers will be asked to submit bids on a second pool of 600,000 pounds in the same way. If this is sold, then the balance which is left will be the third pool and this will be sold at public auction.

In all of these transactions the producer of the tobacco has a final say so as to whether or not his crop shall go into the pool at the price made up on it. If he is not willing to accept the figure offered he is at liberty to withdraw and let his tobacco be bid on again or to dispose of it as he sees fit.

This is the original plan proposed under which to sell the tobacco, but it was turned down and the one adopted by which the farmers made the pool. It is believed that under this new arrangement the buyers will offer prices which will be attractive.

Keeps Bowels Open; Free

There is no function of the human body so important as keeping the bowels open. Upon the condition of the bowels, more than upon any other one thing, depends the health and well-being of the entire system. There is scarcely a sickness that has not got complicated with it. It is at the bottom of most of the serious diseases
of life.

Every grown up human being ought to have at least one full and easy evacuation of the bowels every day. But unfortunately there are thousands who do not get this. No matter what the nature or cause of their constipation, and no matter how chronic and long-standing it is, they will not find a better cure than the well-known Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. No confident dispensers of this wonderful laxative
that it will cure any case of constipation in young or old, that they will send a free test bottle to anyone who sends name and address to Dr. Caldwell.

The sample will do for any constipated person what it did for Mrs. W. D. Fuller, of Eaton Rapids, Mich., for Mr. J. F. Edwards, of Lebanon, Tenn., and a host of others in all sections of the country. After having used the sample they will do
as Mrs. Fuller and Mr. Edwards did,
which is to go to the nearest drug store
and buy a regular bottle which costs 50 cents or $1, according to the size. Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is not a tablet
or powder, but a fluid laxative tonic,
which is what a good constipation remedy should be. Thousands, who once sent for the free test bottle, now have Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin regularly in the house. It is the most scientific blending of laxative ingredients ever put before the world.

If there is anything about your illness that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.

CHAPTER VII.
LANGDON LEARNS OF THINGS UNPLEAS-ANT.

HAINES quickly walked over and touched the southerner on the arm.
"Well, my boy, what can I do for you?" asked the new senator,
turning with a pleasant smile.
"My name is Haines," Senator Stevens was to speak so you about me.
I'm the first of the newspaper correspondents come to interview you."
Langdon's familiar smile broadened.
"Well, you don't look as though you'd blitz. Heckon I can stand for it. Is it very painful?"

"I hope it won't be, senator," Haines said, feeling instinctively that he was going to like this big, hearty citizen.
"All right, Mr. Haines, just as soon as I've said goodby to my old friend, Colonel Steverson, I'll be with you."
And to his continued amazement
Haines saw the senator walk away with the old Union colonel, slap him on the back, cheer him up and finally bid him goodby after extending a cordial invitation to come around to dinner, meet his daughters and talk over old times.

The antiquated Federal soldier marched away more erect, more brisk, than in years, completely restored to favor
in the eyes of the hotel people. Langdon turned to the reporter.
"All right, Mr. Haines; my hands are up. Do your worst. Senator Stevens spoke to me about you; said you were the smartest young newspaper man in Washington. You must come from the south."

But shook his head.
"No, just New York," he said.
"Well, that's a promising town," drawled the southerner. "They tell me
that's the Vicksburg of the north."
"I suppose you haven't been to New York of late, senator?" suggested the newspaper man.

"Well, I started up there with General Lee once," responded Langdon reminiscently, "but we changed our minds and came back. You may have heard about that trip."
Haines admitted that he had.
"Since that time," went on Langdon, "I've confined my travels to New Orleans and Vicksburg. Ever been in New Orleans about Mardi Gras time, Mr. Haines?"

"Sorry, but I don't believe I have,"
confessed the reporter reluctantly.
The senator seemed surprised.
"Well, sir, you have something to live for. I'll make it my special business to personally conduct you through one Mardi Gras, with a special understanding, of course, that you don't print anything in the paper. I'm a vestryman in my church, but since misfortune has come upon our state I have to be careful."

Haines searched his brain. He knew of no grave calamity that had happened recently in Mississippi.
"Misfortune?" he questioned.
Senator Langdon nodded.
"Yes, sir, the great old state of Mississippi went prohibition at the last election. I don't know how it happened. We haven't found anybody in the state that says he voted for it, but the fact is a fact. I assure you, Mr.
Haines, that prohibition stops at my front door, in Mississippi. So I've been living a quiet life down on my plantation."

"This new life will be a great change
for you, then?" suggested the reporter.
"Change? It's revolutionary, sir!
When you've expected to spend your old days peacefully in the country, Mr.
Haines, suddenly to find that your state has called on you!"

A favor of sarcasm came into Haines' reply.
"The office seeking the man?" He could not help the slight sneer. Was a man never to admit that he had sought the office? Haines knew only too well of the arduous work necessary to secure nominations for high office in conventions and to win an election to the senate from a state legislature. In almost every case, he knew,
the candidate must make a dozen different deals to secure votes, might promise the same office to two or three different leaders, force others into line
by threats, send a trusted agent to another with a roll of bank bills to the recipient of which would immediately conclude that this candidate was the only man in the state who could save the nation from destruction. Had not Haines seen men who had sold their unsuspecting delegates for cash to the highest bidder rise in the convention hall and in impassioned, dramatic voice exclaim in praise of the buyer,
"Gentlemen, it would be a trying shame, a crime against civilization, if the chosen representatives of our grand old state of — did not go on record in favor of such a man, such a true citizen, such an inspired patriot,
as he whose name I am about to mention!" So the reporter may be forgiven for the ironical tinge in his hasty
interruption of the new senator's remarks.

Langdon could not suppress a chuck-le at the doubling note in Haines' attitude.

"I think the man would be pretty small potatoes who wouldn't seek the office of United States senator, Mr.
Haines," he said. "If he could get it.
When I was a young man, sir, politics
in the south was a career for a gentleman, and I still can't see how he could be better engaged than in the service
of his state or his country."
"That's right," agreed the reporter,
further impressed by the frank sincerity
of the Mississippian.
"The only condition in my mind, Mr.
Haines, is that the man should ask himself searchingly whether or not
he's competent to give the service.
But I seem to be talking a good deal.
Suppose we get to the interview. Expect your time is short. We'd better begin."

"I thought we were in the interview?" smiled the correspondent.
"In it?" exclaimed Langdon. "Well,
if this is it, it isn't so bad. I see you use a painless method. When I was down in Vicksburg a reporter backed me up in a corner, slipped his hand in his hip pocket and pulled out a list of questions just three feet four inches long."
"He wanted to know what I thought concerning the tariff on aluminum hydrates and how I stood about the operating of the Teuto Pu reservation of the Comanche Indians, and what were my ideas about the differential rate of hauls from the Missouri river."
"He was a wonder, that fellow!
Kinder out of place on a Mississippi
paper. I started to offer him a job, but he was so proud I was afraid he wouldn't accept it. However, it gives you my idea of a reporter."

"If you've been against that, I ought to thank you for talking to me," laughed Haines.

"Then you don't want to know anything about that sort of stuff?" said
Langdon, with a high sigh of relief.

"No, senator," was the amused reply. "I think generally if I know what sort of a man a man is I can tell a great deal about what he will think
on various questions."

Langdon started interestedly.
"You mean, Mr. Haines, if you know whether I'm honest or not you can sit

SALARIES ALLOWED BOTH CLAIMANTS

Pending Final Disposition of Treasurership Muddle.

Dorian and Walters Give Indemnity-
ing Bonds and City Will Be Reimbursed.

COUNCIL'S REGULAR ROUTINE

All the members of the council
were present at last night's meeting
and there was little new business to come before the board. In allowing the pay roll as recommended by the joint finance committee a salary of $246.40 was allowed Mr. John L.
Dorian and a salary of $300 allowed
Mr. George W. Walters. The salaries allowed Mr. Dorian and Mr. Walters were for the period that both men were serving as city treasurer and both these men indemnified the city that if they were not entitled to the salary it would be refunded the city.
Councilman Lally read the recommendation of the joint finance committee of salaries and expenses of the city to be allowed, amounting to $11,603.60, and moved that the accounts be allowed. The motion was seconded. Mr. Bower amended the motion of Mr. Lally, to withhold the salaries of both city treasurers till the court of appeals decided which of the two was to receive the salary. Coun-cilmanship Duvall seconded the motion.
The amended motion was voted on and lost by a vote of 7 to 5. The vote was: Bowers, Duvall,
Mayer, Wanner and Young. Nays:
Foreman, Hannin, Kreutzer, Lally,
VanMeter, Wilson and McCarty. Dr.
W. J. Baga was allowed a salary of $133.30 as city physician. The accounts were then allowed on a vote of 11 yeas and 1 nay. Councilman Wanner voted nay.

Ed Hubbard requested that he be allowed $65 a month as license inspector and that he be appointed committee clerk. No action was taken on the request.

The report of former Treasurer
John J. Dorian and the report of Treasurer George Walters were received and filed. The reports of Chief of Police James Collins were received and filed and Milk and Meat Inspector Ed Farley was received and ordered published.

The Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, informed the board that the monument which they had donated to the city was about completed and that the council appoint the proper party to look after the foundation and get it in shape and take care of the monument when it arrived. The request was granted.

Several motions of the aldermen were concurred in by the lower board
in referring business to the ordinance committee. Alderman Potter's motion that the traction company run
Union station cars to First street and Broadway, Alderman Ochelslaeger's motion that broom peddlers get license for peddling brooms on the streets.

The recommendation of the aldermen instructing the public improvement committee to receive bids for a vault in the clerk's office and for a vault in the city engineer's office was concurred in.

On report of Fire Chief James
Wood and Electrical Inspector W. J.
MacPherson the mayor was instructed to condemn the building at 317
Broadway, as the electrical work
which once braced it has been taken down and the building next to it, 315
Broadway, as the electrical work
sling the front wall of 317 Broadway
in an unsafe condition.

The contract of the Eureka Fire
this unassuming old man before him,
who did not know and probably would be slow to understand the hypocrisy,
the cunning (rickery of lawmakers,
who unmake laws.
"Sufficient reason for you, senator," Haines added. "You have not been in politics very long, have you?" he queried dryly.

A very smile wrinkled the Missis-sippian's face.
"Been in long enough to learn some unpleasant things I didn't know before." He remembered Martin Saa-ders.
"Will you allow me to tell you a few more?" asked Haines.
Langdon inclined his head in acquiescence. "Reckon I'd better know
the worst and get through with it."
"Well, then, senator, somebody from Nebraska will vote for what you want in the way of the naval base because he'll think then you'll help him demand money to dredge some muddy creek that he has an interest in."
"Somebody in Pennsylvania will vote for it because he owes a grudge and wants to hurt the Philadelphia ship people."
"You'll get the Democrats because it's for the south, but if your bill was for the west coast they might fight it tooth and nail, even with the Japanese fleet cruising dangerously near."
"And the Republicans may vote for it because they see a chance to claim glory and perhaps break the solid south in the next presidential campaign. You catch the idea?"
"What!" exclaimed the astounded Langdon.

"Well, who in hades will vote for it
because it's for the good of the United States?" he gasped.
"I believe you will, senator," replied
Haines, with ready confidence.

hose at $1 per foot was ratified.

On motion of Councilman Hannin
the question of building a fence
around the new cemetery site was referred to the public improvement
committee with power to act.

Mr. Frank B. May requested the board to refund him $50 he paid for a license as insurance agent for the National Life Insurance company.
Mr. May said that this company never wrote any insurance in this city and that he would like to be refunded $50. Councilman Young moved that the money be refunded and the motion was seconded. On a question of Mr. VanMeter the city solicitor informed the board that a refund of license could not be granted. The vote on Mr. Young's motion was 6 yeas and 6 nays. Yeas—Foreman, Hannin, Kreutzer, VanMeter, Wilson
and Young. Nays—Bowers, Duvall, Lally, Mayer, McCarty and Wanner.
Mr. Duvall then moved that a warrant be drawn on the city treasurer for $50 and be given to Mr. May.
Mr. VanMeter seconded the motion.
The vote was 10 yeas and 2 nays.
Members Bower and McCarty voted nay.

A deed to a lot in Oak Grove cemetery was granted Mrs. Nancy Belle Walker. Transfers of lots in Oak Grove were granted Mrs. Jane Tyler Bornemann from Mrs. Elizabeth Orme, and Mrs. K. C. Rose to

NOTHING OIL CURES THE SKIN.

Tender Skins of Children Soothed by a Mild Liquid Compound.

Have you ever tried a few drops of an oil of wintergreen compound for skin trouble? It seems to be about the only safe and sure cure for eczema, salt rheum, tetter, ringworm and kindred diseases.

The liquid is so mild that it is used with wonderful soothing effect on the tender skin of infants.
To prove efficacious the oil of win-
tergreen must be mixed with thymol
and glycerine, as in the Prescription of Dr. D. D. Dennis, the eminent skin specialist. The compound is known as D. D. D. Prescription. Used with
D. D. D. Soap it appears to be infallible.

A. J. Brand, 1128 Joliet St., New Orleans, La., writes:
"About five years ago, when my daughter was about three months old she had eczema very badly. Her neck was one solid mass of sores, and we tried everything possible to relieve her, but to no purpose. The doctor
we called said that he could cure her,
but that it would take at least two years to do so, and on account of her age we surely thought that her pain
would kill her. We began using Dr.
D. D. D. Prescription and after using two bottles she was as well and happy a child as you can see and with no mark
or scar on her skin.

"My youngest daughter, now two years old, started the same way with a sore neck about six months ago. We did not lose any time in applying Dr.
D. D. D. and it needed only a few applications to heal her neck. I also use D. D. D. after shaving with beneficial results.

Drop in at our store and we will tell you more about curing eczema
with Dr. D. D. D. Prescription. R. W.

On motion of Councilman Bower
the ordinance committee was instructed to bring in an ordinance providing for the improvement of an alley
in Mechanicsburg bounded by Meyer
and Clements streets and Farley Place.

NOTICE.

I urgently request all persons indebted to me to make settlement before the first day of May, 1903, as I will after that date bring suit on every unpaid note and account due me. Now your account is to each of you a small matter, while the whole is to me very important. I shall deal with all alike; if you don't pay you may know that you will be sued,
whatever your name or color may be.
I hate to do this, but I am forced to it in self-defense. If you have not the money and will borrow it to pay
me in full by the first day of March, 1903, I will deduct 10 per cent from your account, thereby paying the interest myself. Is this not as fair as any sane man can ask?

TWO GREAT PREMIUMS

For All Subscribers to The Sun

No Increase in Your Subscription and Premiums Every Month

Fifty Cents' Worth of STUTZ CANDIES

Free Every Month For Six Months

SOUNDS almost too good to be true, doesn't it? But that is precisely what we are doing. And when you read how we do it below, it's safe to say you will be delighted, if there is anyone at your house who has an unsatisfied "sweet-tooth"—and perhaps you yourself have?

You see it's this way. We were casting about for a premium to give our subscribers which would be different from the usual offerings. We wanted something of which the subscriber, as well as ourselves, knew the absolute value, something which even the daintiest woman would appreciate, and something to give you each month. That's how we happened to make this contract with STUTZ'S COLUMBIA—the place which makes and sells the pure, delicious candies, the refreshing drinks, and choice tropical fruits.

Mr. Stutz, you know, has an ambition to make the finest candies it is possible to make—and those who have tried them, and are competent to judge, say that he sells the daintiest, most toothsome morsels of sweetness at 25c, 40c and 50c a pound, which they have ever tasted. Mr. Stutz says their lingering richness is due to the great care given to the selection and blending of absolutely pure ingredients in his model kitchens but we believe there must be something else added to make these goodies so delightful. At any rate, we know the "taste" is there and so will you.

This Is What We Give You

We have accomplished the happy combination of replenishing each four weeks for twenty-four weeks your supply of a dainty, which we know will sadly need replenishing and, at the same time, boosting one of our foremost home industries.

Each four weeks, for twenty-four weeks, when you have paid your 40c, we give you TWO COUPONS, EACH GOOD FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS on the purchase price of 50c worth of any of STUTZ'S 25c, 40c or 50c CANDIES, CHOCOLATES or BON BONS, the other 25c to be paid in cash. You don't have to pay us in advance. You don't pay one penny more for the paper than the regular price of 10c a week. It makes NO DIFFERENCE WHETHER YOU ARE AN OLD OR NEW SUBSCRIBER.

You merely agree to take THE SUN, the best paper published in Western Kentucky, for twenty-four weeks. That's all. You pay only the regular price of 10c a week, for twenty-four weeks. Whenever you finish paying 40c, you get the two 25c coupons, attached to your receipt. Each one of these coupons, when accompanied by 25c cash, buys 50c WORTH OF THAT DELICIOUS STUTZ CANDY, of either the 25c, 40c or 50c grade. Now, that's clear. If you like it, just sign your name and address on the corner coupon and mail it in to us, or call either phone 358 and a representative will call and more fully explain all the particulars to you.

25c In Laundry at the New City Laundry

Free Every Month For Six Months

WHEN we first started this proposition, it appeared to us right away that many of our men subscribers might not care for the candy and we had to hunt around and find something equally good to give them, for we were determined to have a premium for every man and woman in the city. We wanted a household necessity and have it. Here it is: We Give You 25c Worth of Laundry Work at The New City Laundry Each Four Weeks For Twenty-Four Weeks.

Just that. You pay the regular price of 10c a week for twenty-four weeks; no more. Pay it by the week, by the four weeks or in advance and when you have paid the full 40c we give you a receipt to which is attached a coupon which is good for 25c in payment for not less than $1.00 worth of laundry work which shall have been sent to that laundry and payment made therefor during the four weeks covered by your receipt and coupon. Thus, you get THE SUN for 15c a month.

The New City Laundry, you know, is a comparatively young business, with brand new equipment of the most modern sort and their work has come to be the accepted standard of quality among discriminating people. It goes without saying that we recommend their work most highly, else we should never have made this contract with them, for THE SUN seeks the stamp of recognized quality on everything which it puts out.

This Contract Explains How We Give You Free Laundry Work

This offer, too, is open to all subscribers, whether old or new, and if you want to know more about it, just sign the corner coupon, with your name and address, and mail it to us, and our solicitor will call upon you; or if you prefer, call either phone 358, saying you are interested. Remember, These Two Offers are Open to All Subscribers, Whether Old or New, and Cost You Nothing But the Usual 10c a Week.

THE PADUCAH EVENING SUN,
Paducah, Ky.

I am interested in your premium offer, and should like to have a solicitor call to more fully explain it to me.
